A Message from Father Mark

Dear Parishioners,

This is the weekend before my sabbatical begins in Kyoto, Japan. Someone asked, "What is a sabbatical?" A sabbatical is not a vacation. It is a time set aside for self renewal and retooling in an area of a person's work. Sabbaticals are very common in academic circles. There are programs throughout the world designed for priests which address various aspects of ministry. For example, if a priest has been ordained for thirty years and has not had the opportunity to crack open a theology textbook for several years, a sabbatical could be a golden opportunity. He could take courses at a seminary or university to update his knowledge on new authors and understandings in the field.

A sabbatical is a time of renewal and rejuvenation. For myself, there has always been a desire to learn about Eastern Religions and the art of quieting prayer. I have been working with my spiritual director in the area of quieting myself and interior prayer. She felt that now would be a good time for me to attend the monastery in Kyoto which specializes in the study and practice of interior prayer. I feel very confident in the parish staff to allow myself to take the three months to study in Japan. Four years ago, at the beginning of my ministry at St. Veronica, the parish and school were going through transition. Today, we have St. Thomas Aquinas Academy which has grounded itself and is developing nicely and the parish continues to unfold under the guidance of a top notch staff.

Unfortunately, my classmate Fr. Paul Hartmann will not be able to take my place as the temporary administrator during the sabbatical. Due to unforeseen challenges on the Archdiocesan level, he was needed to handle a very serious situation at another parish. Due to this circumstance, as of the time this article is being written, other arrangements are still being made to provide coverage by a priest.

This situation forces both priests and parishioners to face the current priest shortage. For the past few years, we have preached, instructed and warned folks about the lack of priests. The time is here! The effects of this growing shortage will become evident in the next few months and years to come. The diminishing number of active priests is a situation we did not want to contemplate, hoping that it would never happen. Why mention this topic? The shortage goes to the heart of why Fr. Paul needed to go to another parish rather than come to St. Veronica. You might be asking yourself, "Why didn't the Archdiocese just get another priest for the other parish?" Fr. Hartmann has certain skills that are needed by that parish. Also, we don't have extra active priests to assign. Several years ago, this would not have been a problem, but today it is a reality. We thank God that many retired priests have been willing to continue in ministry and step in on a temporary basis. Yet, in the very near future, even the number of retired priests able to help out will diminish.

Remember; keep the faith. Maintain a healthy presence for one another at Mass and continue to keep St. Veronica Parish alive and well until my return in May. My hope is that the church will be bursting at the seams through your welcoming invitations to family, friends, and neighbors. This is our parish and we need to maintain the Spirit's presence.

Blessings and Dewa mata (see you later), Fr. Mark

Benediction

Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament and Eucharistic Adoration will take place THIS Sunday, January 28, during the time between the Masses. Jesus truly present in the Sacred Host will be exposed to view in the monstrance on the altar. Plan to spend some quiet prayer-time in adoration and thanksgiving after the 8:30 Mass or before the 10:30 Mass. This opportunity for prayer will be offered on the fourth Sunday of each month. In a world where there is so much noise, so much bewilderment, there is a need for silent adoration of Jesus concealed in the Host. Be diligent in the prayer of adoration. It is a source of comfort and light particularly to those who are suffering. (Pope Benedict XVI). At 10:00 we will conclude with Benediction, the ceremony of praise and blessing.

birth of a healthy baby (1); family healing (2); peace after death of loved one (1); physical and mental healing (9); good medical test results (4); special intention (11); spiritual guidance (6); spiritual healing (1); success in job (2); thanksgiving (2); and for all educators; for all civic and religious leaders; for vocations to the priesthood and religious life. The Mission Intention is: "that the Church in Africa may become a constantly more authentic witness of the Good News of Christ and be committed, in every Nation, to the promotion of reconciliation and peace." (www.apostlesofprayer.org) "We turn to God, to the Lord of Life. We ask Him for help; we ask Him to change the hearts of those who practice, support and promote abortion. We pray that millions of unborn children will be given the opportunity to live." Homily of Cardinal Justin Rigali, Pro-Life Mass, National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, Washington, D.C. CHOOSE LIFE: OPPOSE THE DEATH PENALTY

On November 7, 2006, Wisconsin voters voted "Yes" to reinstating the death penalty in Wisconsin. It is a sad thought that a human life should be destroyed by this means. What does the church have to say about this issue? Below is another article in the Faithful Citizenship Series, sponsored by the Archdiocese.

Has Wisconsin ever had the death penalty? Yes, until 1853 when the legislature abolished the death penalty as inhumane and unnecessary once the first state prison was constructed. In recent years, a number of state governments have reached the same conclusion and have repealed the death penalty or declared moratoria on executions. Such state actions have been a response, in part, to the exoneration of innocent people erroneously convicted of capital crimes. Worldwide, the human community is moving away from capital punishment, not toward it.

Wouldn't Wisconsin be safer if the death penalty were reinstated?

Our state's rejection of the death penalty has not compromised public safety. Wisconsin's homicide rate is far lower than many states that have the death penalty. In fact, our homicide rate has been declining more rapidly here than in states that do have capital punishment.

But doesn't the ultimate crime of murder deserve the ultimate punishment?

While it is natural to desire a punishment that is proportional to the crime, proportionality requires fairness. Yet our judicial system simply cannot ensure that capital punishment is imposed equally on all who are convicted. For example, the system is not colorblind. Nationwide, data show that a black person convicted of murder is far more likely to receive the death penalty if the victim is a white person and less likely to receive the death penalty if the victim is a black person.

Beyond issues of race or class, the judicial process is fraught with too many other possibilities for error or bias; overeager or unscrupulous police and prosecutors; unreliable eyewitness accounts; incompetent defense lawyers; biased judges and juries. Since the 1970s, more than 120 death row inmates have been exonerated nationwide. No one knows how many more were wrongfully executed. The ultimate punishment is also irreversible.

Catholic Schools' Week starts January 28 and will run until February 1. Students will be attending Masses at each parish to talk about the great things that happen in Catholic Schools. We will have fun activities occurring each day of that week. On Monday, we kick off our Penny War. Proceeds will benefit Make a Wish Foundation. We will have an all-school Mass on Tuesday to honor our grandparents. There will be time after Mass (until 10:30) for grandparents and grand-friends to walk around and be part of the students' classrooms. We will have Game day on Wednesday, and PJ/Movie day on Thursday.

Thursday is also our Open House and Academic Expo night. It will run from 6:30-8:00 pm. Student projects will be on display, guided tours offered, and refreshments, registration materials and a book fair available. Everyone who registers by February 1st will receive $100.00 off their tuition fee. For more information concerning this week, please call the school office, 414-744-1214 x2.

January 2007

Dear Parents,

One of the joys of my work is visiting the wonderful Catholic schools of the archdiocese. I am energized by the students and confident in the future of the Catholic Church in southeastern WI.

The vibrancy of a Catholic school lifts my spirit. The presence of Christ, the reason for Catholic schools, is evident everywhere: classrooms, libraries, music rooms, study halls and athletic fields. His name is proclaimed freely and prayer to Him is offered.

If you want your child's education to reflect your faith and values, I encourage you to consider a Catholic school. Be assured that respect for faith formation, moral growth and character are championed in all Catholic schools. Catholic school graduates flourish, develop and achieve as a result of the powerful blend of academics with faith-based development.

In a Catholic school, Christian values influence the entire learning experience. At a time when we know there is a moral decline in our society, this infusion of the Gospel message is more necessary than ever. Choosing a Catholic school may be a sacrifice in terms of economics; however, the investment will pay dividends many times over. When you choose a Catholic school, the message is clear— your child's faith and character is a priority.

I know this first hand. My parents made incredible sacrifices for me and my two brothers and two sisters to attend Catholic schools. It was a priority for my parents to pass on their faith to us and their decision has taken on even greater meaning to me as an adult.

I ask that you recognize the importance a Catholic school education could have in your son or daughter's life.

With prayerful best wishes, I am,
Faithfully in Christ,

*Most Reverend Timothy M. Dolan
Archbishop of Milwaukee*

Fun Facts for Faithful Kids

Question: Why is St. Veronica like a piece of fruit?

Answer: Because it is a “par”ish. A parish is a large area of land served by a church. It becomes a small community where people pray, celebrate, and serve God. Through the parish, Catholics receive the sacraments, celebrate mass, and receive religious formation. We even have a library and bulletins for children!

Have you ever heard of the poet Joyce Kilmer, who was a Catholic? On Feb. 2, 1913 he was looking out a window and was inspired to write the poem, “Trees”. One famous line in the poem reads, “I think that I shall never see, A poem lovely as a tree.” Maybe you can grow up to be a famous poet.

“The only thing we have to fear, is fear itself.” This line is from a speech by President Franklin Delano Roosevelt; whose birthday is Jan 30. Roosevelt was able to become president even though he had polio and could not walk. He helped the people of the United States believe in themselves during the dark days of the Depression. Even when things look very bad, we can always remember that God is with us.

Lectionary Link: Breaking Open the Word of God

Lectionary Link is designed to help your family carry the Scripture Readings back into your home. This week we celebrate the 4th Sunday in Ordinary Time with each of the Readings focusing on the necessity of Love. We understand that Love is the greatest virtue. With love, we can do great things: without love, we can do nothing. Sadly, even Jesus realized that He could do nothing in his hometown because of the lack of honor from the people.

Adult: What is a way you show members of your family your love for them?

Child: What ways do you show God’s love to someone who is lonely or hurting?
